

“When I walked in, I thought, ‘Sacramento looks so amazingly elegant.’ These are really hard times, so I’m thrilled for the support and turnout tonight. People are out having a good time, and kids are going to benefit from this wonderful night. What more can you want?”

KFBK anchor and event emcee Kitty O’Neal

▶ KFBK anchor Kitty O’Neal

▶ Chevo Ramirez, regional manager of Wells Fargo, with Angela Hughes of ANG Public Relations

▶ Event chair Renee Smider checks out the party at the Radisson in Arden Arcade.

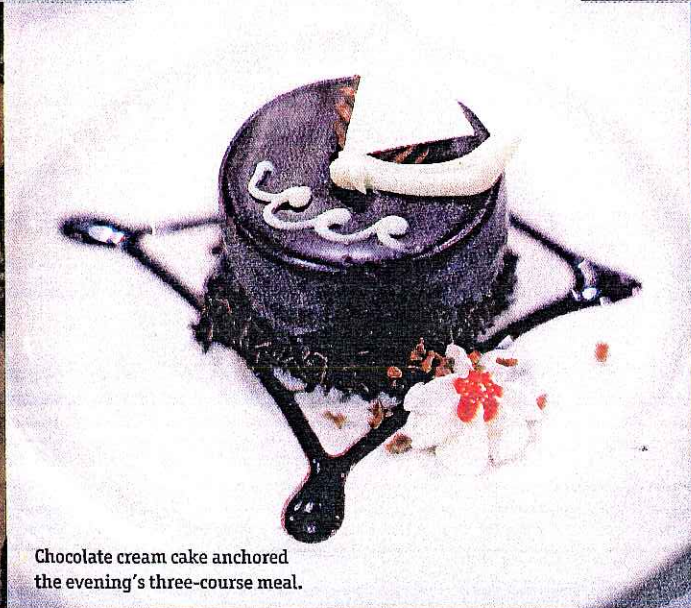

▶ Marketing executive Christina Gunn with husband Bryan, an engineer

▶ Erin Troshinsky, General Manager of KCRA

▶ Erin Blomberg (left), exec. assistant at Sunoptics Skylights, with Cynthia Cassano, director of Crowley Children’s Fund (center), & Linda Kleeman, owner of Sequel’s Consignment Boutique

Chocolate cream cake anchored the evening’s three-course meal.

Sea Worthy

Local VIPs were regaled with dinner and dancing at the regatta-themed Spring Ball, which raised over $200,000 for the River Oak Center for Children